Hi [REDACTED]

Attached is my manuscript entitled "Law & Disorder" co-authored with Mark Olshaker. This is a non-fiction book addressing cases I have worked/analyzed for both the prosecution and defense since my retirement in 1995. (1970-1995) I refer to a few cases that I already wrote about in some of my other books that have all gone through pre-pub in the past. The Publisher is "Kensington Publishers".

My full name is: John Edward Douglas

Re: Manuscript: "Law And Disorder"

Dear Mr. Douglas,

This letter is in response to the submission of the above manuscript received for review on April 23, 2012, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and the Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-0001-RMD).

This manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and the reviewer noted the following matter which requires possible amendment/correction.

For the following names, please ensure that a pseudonym is used to protect the identity of these individuals:

*If the names listed above are already pseudonyms, the names are approved. In addition, if the names are publicly known through court records or news articles, the names are approved. If not, please change them. Also, if you have written approval from the above individuals to use their real names, please provide a copy of the authorization, and we will approve their release.

You may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the manuscript are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] in the prepublication office at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at [redacted]. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.
